

641—59.9 (17A,22) Disclosures without the consent of the subject.

59.9(1) Open records are routinely disclosed without the consent of the subject.

59.9(2) To the extent allowed by law, disclosure of confidential records may occur without the consent of the subject. Following are instances where disclosure, if lawful, will generally occur without notice to the subject:

a. For a routine use as defined in rule 641—59.10(17A,22) or in the notice for a particular record system.

b. To a recipient who has provided the board with advance written assurance that the record will be used solely as a statistical research or reporting record, provided that the record is transferred in a form that does not identify the subject.

c. Investigative information in the possession of the board or its employees or agents which relates to license discipline may be disclosed to appropriate licensing authorities within the state, the appropriate licensing authority in another state, the District of Columbia, or territory or country in which the licensee is licensed or has applied for a license. If the investigative information in the possession of the board or its employees or agents indicates a crime has been committed, the information shall be reported to the proper law enforcement agency.

d. To the legislative services agency under Iowa Code section 2A.3.

e. Disclosures in the course of employee disciplinary proceedings.

f. In response to a court order or subpoena.

g. To the office of citizens' aide pursuant to Iowa Code section 2C.9.
